Charles Dickens said that procrastination is the theft of time and you should collar him. The author's meaning of this quotation is that you should prevent yourself from procrastinating because you won't have time to ~~for~~ more important things in your life. In my opinion, you should ~~not~~ let ~~yourself~~ to procrastinate because in this way you easily can miss something important in your life. Also you will have bad emotional health during procrastination. I have experienced cons of procrastination once. ~~I~~ was getting ready for exams. In those days, it was very time-wasting for me to deal with other things, so I hadn't not enough time to prepare for exams.

In conclusion, ~~for~~ you should plan you time on day to prevent yourself from procrastination. In other way, it will have bad impact on your performance during your life.
